DICK BRANDT is quite a likable guy;
He's the type that catches anyone's eye.
But seriously, his future holds
Any fine job the world unfolds.

LEONARD SCHMIEGE, perhaps a chef to be,
Has liked all foods since he was three.
And since he does like food, he should
At managing a restaurant be very good.

JIM SINGLETON in school always played with the band.
As council president, he lent a helping hand.
The future surely holds in store
Good fortune, good luck, and more, still more.

After school, we prophesy
SUE MILLER will marry that certain "guy."
She'll be very handy with pot and pan,
To please her children and faithful man.

CAROLYN FAST, it is predicted
To a nice young man will be addicted.
And in our crystal ball we see
A happy wife she soon will be.

HAROLD SCHIEFERSTEIN, it is plain to see
The life of the party, he'll always be
With his crazy jokes and comedy.

Another of our classmates,
BEV STEVENS by name,
Someday we predict to have great fame.
Whatever her ambitions, whatever her aim,
Perfection's the goal which she'll obtain.

ANNA MARIE SCHLEMMER, a nurse to be,
It's been her ambition since she was three.
Now ready to graduate,
We wish her success and much happiness.

CAROLYN HOFFMAN is quite a co-operative gal.
She'll always be a friend and pal.
A career in teaching she plans to pursue,
And that we believe someday will come true.

A mighty quiet guy is he,
But surprised we will not be,
For someday GERALD HAUGK will be needed for
The manager of that Standard Store.

To be a coach is BUTCH MYERS' plan.
In this position he will be great.
Unless his plans are changed by fate,
He may have a team that goes to "state."

JOYCE KIRCHNER, quite a reliable girl,
Would like to give telephone operating a whirl.
We hope she acquires a job of this kind,
For she's very deserving in our mind.

While looking in the crystal ball,
We see a face that's known to all.
BOB KEUNEKE'S future is hard to foretell,
But whatever he may do, he will do it well.

When HAROLD WEIDLER graduates, wait and see
Someday a famous dancer he may be.
He has always enjoyed it and we know quite well
Whatever he does, only time will tell.

HERMAN WITTE, always gay and full of fun,
Working hard from rise to set of sun.
In the future, we foretell
That here's a man who will excel.

KARL FUHRMAN is always around,
To finish the jobs which he has found
He'll do an "odd" job to a "T",
A handy man he'll always be.

A very nice guy, we all agree,
Is WELDON SCHAEFER from A-Z.
Because he gets along with everyone well,
In future jobs he will excel.

DIXIE LEE, when a little girl,
Decided to give beauty school a whirl.
Now upon graduation,
She will head in that direction.

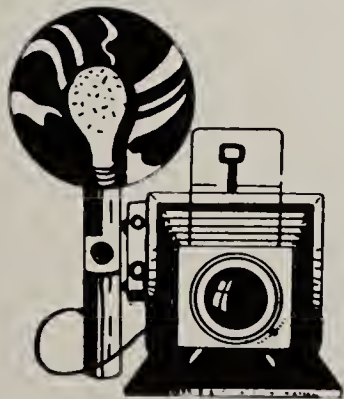

When something "extra" must be done,
DOLORES RODENBECK will do it.
For typing we rely on her
She'll do her jobs well, I'm sure.

Now, JIM McDOUGALL comes to mind,
As a student in history he was always inclined;
To be a teacher has been his plan.
He'll always be an ideal man.

DORENE BEERY has told us that she
Someday a psychiatrist would like to be.
She'll read people's minds and probably find
That some of them she'll have to rewind.

From past experience we have found
That JIM BOERGER is really best all around.
Farmer or businessman, whatever he may be,
He'll achieve his aim successfully.

A job in Home Economics is CARLA SNYDER'S goal.
She's working hard to achieve it.
Quite capable and friendly, as a whole,
We're all sure she'll receive it.

CAROL BIEBERICH, snapshot editor was she;
A finer job couldn't have been done by me.
Her future, it is plain to see,
Will be based around photography.

FRITZ BULMAHN, we all know quite well,
Is headed for Valpo so he tells.
Work hard, have fun, and you'll never regret
The friends you'll make and never forget.

CLAUDIA CASTON, a lass that's really neat,
Has brains and beauty hard to beat.
Whatever she sets out to do,
One can be sure she'll see it through.

Motorcycle racing will always intrigue
DAVE BELTZ the senior who enjoys high speeds.
Then someday when he brings home the prize,
He'll see the praise in his family's eyes.

MARILYN REINKING, slim and tall,
The best and sweetest of them all.
Teaching school is thought to be ideal,
She'll do her job with the greatest zeal.

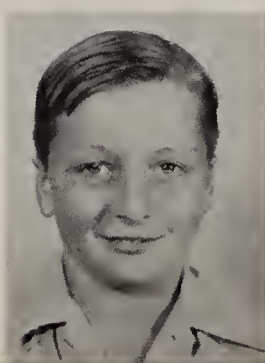

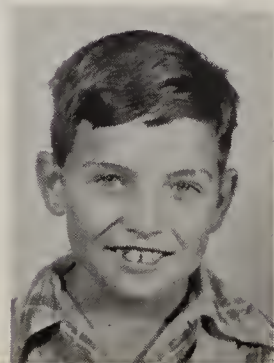

For DAVE FUELLING we prophesy,
A career in farming, by and by.
And when someday he settles down,
He'll be a man that's well renowned.

KENNY PECK is aiming high.
Her ambition is to reach the sky.
As a stewardess she'll always be,
Serving people like you and me.

RALPH EWELL, Dr. Brown in our class play
Who knows, maybe some day - - -
He'll really wear that little white mask,
And do a physician's many tasks.

Sponsors Message

To My Seniors of 1958

The time I have spent as your sponsor will always remain in my memory. The hard work - the long hours of play rehearsals, the sometimes arduous duties as concessionaires, the magazine and Christmas card sales, the task of producing a yearbook and many other projects - seem somehow smaller in the light of the friendship you have shown and the spirit of cooperation and good fellowship you have exhibited. My thanks to you for experiences I might never have shared had I not met you!

Goodbye

Mrs. Henderharst,

this last year in

Stone Co. will be one that I will never forget.

I really enjoyed having you as my teacher. I wish you the best of luck in the rest of your teaching profession.

I always remember our last day of class. (Strawberry shortcake)

Anna Marie

"5-8"

Mrs. Henderharst,

This is the last day of school and then I am on my own. I have really enjoyed your classes all through school.
Seems always seemed hard but with your guidance it seemed easier. So I regret (in some ways) that I must go but try my best in nurse's training.
